LOSTINE DEPARTMENT

Miss Bethel McKenzie at the Postoffice is authorized to receive and receipt for subscriptions and advertising for the News-Record, and to receive and receipt for job work.

Elery Rose, who broke his arm in the stage runaway recently, is improving rapidly.

Last Tuesday several loads of hogs left Lostine for shipping. They were contracted some time ago by Mr.
Hotchkiss.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCubbins left Wednesday for California where they expect to spend the winter.

The smallpox quarantine was withdrawn from the families of John Bowman and Mr. Feagin. No further spread of the disease having begun it was decided that people would be safe in their presence.

Preaching services, Lostine Circuit:
Second Sunday, Fairview at 11 a. m., Lostine at 7 p. m.; Third Sunday, Bramlet chapel at 11 a. m.; Fourth Sunday, Lostine at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.
I will try and keep these as permanent dates the remainder of the year.

HENRY MARTIN, pastor.

Two railroad officials came through Lostine last Wednesday. They were making an estimate of the freight valuation of the county in order to decide whether to finish the road to Wallowa city this fall. It was decided that nothing further would be done until spring.

Lyle Makin, of Eagle valley, arrived Saturday in Lostine where he will remain a short time visiting friends and relatives. His sister, Ryll, he says, was married about a month ago to a prosperous young farmer of that place.

The Sunday school has made special arrangements for a Christmas program and a Christmas tree and services will be given at the Presbyterian church.

The Nolan restaurant has new changed proprietors and is being run by the efficient management of L. P.
Womack and wife. This boarding house has already received the praise of every one in attendance. Special dinners are given on Sundays.

The funeral services of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Croser were held Saturday from the Presbyterian church, Rev. Thompson officiating. The child had been sick for several days. A spider was supposed to have been the cause of its death. About a week ago Dr. Hewett lanced two ulcers which seemed to be the poisonous location but the weak and frail constitution of the five months old child could not follow the weakening results which followed. The child's parents are well known throughout the county and many friends unite in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.

LINES BY MRS. ALMIRA BRIGHT.

Your darling babe has left us, His trials of life are o'er;
He has gone to greet the angels On the bright and golden shore.
He will have no more pain and sorrow Up there they cannot go For all the wicked things must stay In this wicked world below.
His life was as pure as the dewdrops
That fall from the heavens above;
He has gone to meet the angels Where all a peace and love.
Then let us strive to live So when we come to die We'll meet our friends and loved ones In their home beyond the sky.

ALDER SLOPE.

The church at Alder will soon be modernized by the addition of electric lights.

A. R. Murrey has purchased a new feed chopper and should be included among the many hog raisers of the slope who are making a lucrative accessory to the farm income.

Mrs. George Hodge was a visitor at the Sunday school last Sabbath. There are a few more vacant seats that we would like to see occupied.

Joe Weaver was kicked by a horse that he was currying last Monday. The injuries consist of some flesh bruise and a broken nose. This is the usual result of feeding home grown oats.

Interest in the singing school conducted by Rev. Owens, is steadily increasing. An unusually large crowd evidenced appreciation of the work by attendance last Friday and Saturday nights.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McFetridge, of Prairie Creek, visited with friends and relatives at this place during a part of last week.

Miss Stella Laird, who has been ill for the past year, is again able to be in school.

Mrs. V. I. Cronin, of Enterprise, visited her sister, Mrs. A. R. Murrey, Saturday and Sunday.

At present the direct road to Alder is closed during the building of a bridge over Hurricane creek. Work upon this is being rapidly pushed by an energetic and efficient crew of men.

PARADISE GLINTS

Paradise, Dec. 5, 1907.—Snow all gone. Weather fine now.

Several of the boys were fortunate at the shooting match, November 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sturms visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sturms Sunday.

Several of the young people from this community attended the Thanksgiving dance at Flora.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Straley and son Irwin, and Miss Valma Straley visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H.
Baker of Flora Thursday evening.

Miss Maud Applegate is staying with Mrs. Oscar Bodmer during the absence of Mr. Bodmer, who has gone to Lewiston with a drove of hogs.

Clyde Straley has rented a farm of his father, W. C. Straley, and is breaking in a new disc plow he purchased a few days ago.

O. A. Shuman, B. Botts and Wm.
Martin of Lost Prairie passed through Paradise on their way home from Lewiston where they took their hogs to market about two weeks ago.

Mrs. Enyart and daughter Lulu visited with Mrs. Charles Sturms Monday.
James Doran recently sold his sawmill to Lake Osbourn and Charley Sturms. Mr. Doran intends to carry the mail from Paradise to Anatone.

There will be a dance at Nova Straley's hall Friday December 13.

Roy Ralls attended the literary at Flora, Friday night.

Mr. Delore was in Paradise Saturday after wood for the Hackberry high school on Grande Ronde river.

The Pictures

You send to your friends should be the very best

Don't ask them to spoil the appearance of their collection by a photograph poorly finished and mounted. We make a most beautiful line of portraits, finished in the best manner and correct style.

Examine our samples and ask us about the price.
